CORAM: DR. D.Y. CHANDRACHUD, J.

23rd April, 2007.

P.C. :

By consent the Chamber Summons has been taken on Board and has been heard.

A self operative order was passed by D.K. Deshmukh, J. on 16th January, 2007 in Summons for Judgment 385 of 2006. The order was passed by consent of parties. The Defendants were to deposit an amount equivalent in Indian currency to Euro 22,036 within a period of three months failing which the suit was to stand decreed in terms of prayer clauses (a) and (b). The period of three months has also expired and the suit accordingly stands decreed. The order was passed by consent. The affidavit in support of the Chamber Summons is entirely vague and the medical certificates which have been relied upon are all prior to the passing of the order of the Learned Single Judge. In any event the Defendants having accepted that certain consequences would ensue by consent, the Defendants would be bound by the consequences of their own default. No case has been made out on the Chamber Summons. The Chamber Summons is accordingly dismissed.
